Teacher-friendly training that yields results. Read what other educators say...

Over the years, I've utilized TWT's unique approach to teaching writing across three different school districts, each time seeing transformative results. - B.R. Jones, PhD, Superintendent of Education Jones County School District, MS

I plan to begin using some of these methods and suggestions in my classes tomorrow, because they are so clearly beneficial and easy to use. - Lee Cording, High School Teacher, Deshler Public School District, NE

Informative/Explanatory 1-Day Virtual Workshop April 30, 2025 10:00 am - 4:00 pm MST

This workshop provides tools and techniques to help teach the art of I/E writing and reading informational text across the curriculum at all grade levels. Participants will examine the developmental stages of writing, learn and practice research-based strategies and techniques for teaching I/E writing skills including sentence building, paragraph and multi-paragraph writing, and compare and contrast essays.

Cost per participant:
$255 if they need the I/E binder (mandatory for the training)
$150 if they already have the I/E binder

Register today! Simply return this form via email, fax, or mail.

The Informative/Explanatory binder is mandatory for training and must be purchased for each participant who does not already have one. If you are registering for more than one participant, please complete page 2 to provide information for each additional participant.
